C. Regular health check-up:

C.1 Dr. L. Ramakrishna Rao of the Varun Health Centre, visited our Vruddhaasrayam on 19-1-21 for regular health check-up of the inmates.

C 2 Sri Bangar Raju garu, Permanent Member and our Hon. Resident Manager, collected the medicines from the Gajuwaka Centre of the Varun Group.

D. Visits to Vruddhaasrayam:

D.1 The New Year began on a very positive note for the inmates of our Vruddhaasrayam.

They had homemade breakfast, lunch with special items and night tiffin, courtesy Sri P. Narayana Rao, Member, Visakhapatnam and his spouse Ms. Vijayalakshmi.

The couple visited the Aasrayam thrice on 1-1-2021 to serve food prepared at their home and spent about an hour with the inmates.

D.1.2 Sri P. Narayana Rao, also visited our Vruddhaasrayam four more times this month, i.e., on 11-1-21, 15-1-21, 23-1-21 and 25-1-21.

D.2 Sri A. Ganapati Rao, Member, from Visakhapatnam, who was visiting our Vruddhaasrayam, at least once in a month during the lockdown period, visited the Aasrayam on 5-1-21.

His last visit was on 15-12-20.

D.3 On 10-1-21, after returning from the saloon, Sri Yoganand, oldest inmate of our Aasrayam, felt dizzy and slowly dropped on the verandah on reaching the Aasrayam.

Seeing him in that condition, Sri Bangar Raju garu, our Hon. Resident Manager immediately telephoned Sri K. Rajkumar, Member, who recommended the admission of Sri Yoganand, Sri P. Narayana Rao, Member and Sri S. Sankara Rao, Well Wisher.

Within no time, Mr. Ashish, son of Sri Sankara Rao, came to the Aasrayam and with his help, Sri Yoganand was put on his bed and next minute Sri Narayana Rao was there.

With the intake of fruit juice brought by Sri Narayana Rao, Sri Yoganand felt better and after resting for a while, he was back to normal.

While lying on the verandah, Sri Yoganand lost control of his bowles and Sri Bangar Raju and Sri Narayana Rao cleaned the area and washed the soiled clothes.

I salute, on our behalf, both of them for their noble service and thank Sri Sankara Rao for his prompt response.

D.3.2 The next morning, i.e., on 11-1-21, Sri Sankara Rao was happy to find Sri Yoganand sitting on a chair on the verandah and reading "the Hindu" as usual.

D.3.3 Sri Vinay Babu and Sri Narayana Rao were also glad to find Sri Yoganand his usual self when they visited the Aasrayam.

D.4 On the occasion of Bhogi festival, Sri G. Suryanarayana, Member, Governing Body, Ms. P. Balatripurasundari, Life Member and Sri M. Rama Rao, President, visited our Vruddhaasrayam and spent about an hour there.

They were happy to find that Sri Yoganand was doing well, as also the other inmates.

D.5 Sri K. Swaminathan, Member, Governing Body, Visakhapatnam, visited our Vruddhaasrayam on 15-1-2021, Kanuma festival day and again on 26-1-21, the Republic Day.

D.6 Sri P. Raghuramaih, Vice-President, visited our Aasrayam on 20-1-21.

With this Sri Raghuramaih resumed his visits to our Vruddhaasrayam that were interrupted due to the lockdown.

D.7 Sri Bh. Subba Rao, Permanent Member and Sri D.N. Raj, Member, Visakhapatnam, visited our Vruddhaasrayam and spent a couple of hours with the inmates on 22-1-21.

Both Sri Subba Rao and Sri Raj, are occasional visitors to the Aasrayam, even during the lockdown.

At the behest of Subba Rao garu, his son-in-law Sri B. S. V. B. Yerram Raju, was visiting the Aasrayam last year.

D.8 Ms. K. Malathi, Permanent Member, Visakhapatnam and Sri T. Purushottam, Member, Governing Body, Visakhapatnam, visited our Vruddhaasrayam on 25-1-21 and spent some quality time with the inmates.
